FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER APRIL 17, 2016

First Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas addressed many people, and large crowds gathered to hear them. Some of the Jews became jealous, and argued with whatever Paul said. But Paul and Barnabas continued preaching their message of salvation and everlasting life, until they were eventually forced to leave the town.

Second Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

John saw a vision of many people surrounding a throne and the Lamb. One of the elders told him these were the people who had survived great periods of trial, but maintained strong faith in God. Now they would receive eternal protection and comfort from God as reward for their loyalty.

Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus states that his sheep know his voice and follow him, and will receive eternal life. Jesus also says that no one can snatch his followers away, because God is greater than anyone who might try, and Jesus is one with God.

SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

Fourth Sunday of Easter

"My sheep hear my voice, I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand."

Three verbs – hear, know, follow. As I listen to the Good Shepherd, I ask three questions.

How clear is my hearing? What is the Lord saying to me, asking of me? How wrong it would be to presume that I have listened to His call, without taking time to reflect upon it.

How I wish I could know the Lord, as He knows me. He fills me with gifts, which I sometimes do not use. He wants the best for me, and I sometimes settle for less or mediocrity. He asks me to be responsible and accountable in my serving Him in others.

How closely do I give in to follow the Lord? Do I keep a safe distance or try to take giant steps to be closer to Him.

On this Good Shepherd weekend I find comfort as He calls, leads, feeds and heals me. I am also aware that I need to hear, listen, know and follow Him more closely.

Parishioner's Testimony

"The parish gives to me, my husband and children and my community. The parish offers me a community of worship and prayers and financially I want to help it continue to operate. Also, my parish gives to the sick, poor and others, and I want to be a part of that."

ANOUNCEMENTS

St. Gianna Molla 1922- 1962 from Italy- was a physician, a working mom, a professional woman and a loving wife. She gave her life so that her unborn child might live. She is a fine example of a other's love. She believed that being a mother is a special gift from God in bringing forth new life and that the life of a child must always be protected whether in or out of the womb.

Collections

Cardinal's Appeal 2016 In Pew collection: today, as we have been announcing there will be a second collection at all masses; envelopes are available for parishioners to make their pledge and fill them out, or to donate a one time amount. We need the participation of at least 100 families. The appeal is a vital source of funding for the programs and ministries that sustain the parishes across our Archdiocese. It is not too late to make your gift. See the office if you may need help. Thank you.
