FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JANUARY 31, 2016

First Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19

God tells Jeremiah that he was chosen to be a prophet to the nations before he had even been born. He also promises him strength and protection, providing Jeremiah does as God asks.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13

Paul discusses the importance of love and claims that one who possesses any gift, but lacks love, has nothing. He explains that true love never fails, although knowledge or other talents can fail to endure in the same manner. Paul says that three things last: "faith, hope and love, the greatest of these being love."

Gospel: Luke 4:21-30

Jesus spoke in the synagogue at Nazareth, at first appealing to all who were present. But he knew that they would be expecting him to do the things he had already done in other towns. He reminded them of other prophets who had preached and gained acceptance in foreign places instead of their home towns. This angered the people, who expelled him from town.

SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 January 31, 2016

"Jesus began speaking in the synagogue: 'To this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your heart! All who were present spoke favorably of him; they marveled at the appealing discourse which came from his lips. They also asked, "Is this not Joseph's son?"...At these words the whole audience in the synagogue was filled with indignation. They rose up and expelled him from the town..."

It didn't take many verses in the gospel of St. John to find a conversion, not to but away from Jesus. The person, admired and respected, became a challenger. He knew their hearts and was found to be too much for them. He told it like it was.

We are called to turn constantly to the Lord. To hear His word proclaimed and a teaching on a weekly basis. God's word is "like a two edged sword" which can cut deeply, inform and reform our lives. Sometimes we do not care for what we hear, because it challenges our way of life, our pattern of thinking, or our relationship with others. But remember, what is important is our relationship with God.

As I recreate the scene in the Nazareth synagogue I ask myself if I marvel at what I hear and how I respond.

GOD'S PLAN FOR GIVING/TITHING

Parishioner's Testimony

"This experience is a small step in helping my family understand the spirit of tithing which is less than the spirit of what it means to be chosen in the first place."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Celebrating our Saints: "St. Blasé" "Through the intercession of St. Blasé, Bishop and Martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil...." These are the words of the special blessing of the throats customarily given on this day. We know very little about St. Blasé other than he was a Bishop of Sebaste, in Armenia, in the fourth century. Legend takes over from there, and tells the story of an anxious mother who hurries to St. Blasé with her little boy who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. The saint called for two candles, which he lit and held them in the form of a cross under the child's chin reciting prayers and blessed him. Immediately the bone loosened and was removed. Devotion to St. Blasé was very popular during the Middle Ages, and continues to this day.
